As to Mrs. Littleton.

When asked for a statement concerning the criticisms of Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, who during the Daughters' Convention at Washington described Mrs. Walke to reporters as foolish and silly and a busybody, Mrs. Walke said she would refrain from indulging in such controversy. She would only state the facts, she said.

"I saw Mrs. Littleton but once, then only for a moment, when I met her one morning in the New Willard Hotel. The reported controversy was entirely a newspaper affair, and did not occur between us personally.

"The morning I saw her at the New Willard I told her that I considered she had treated me with gross discourtesy in falling linst summer to notify me of the cancellation of the Senate committee meeting, at which she had invited me to appear, is connection with her movement to have the sovernment with her movement to have the sovernment acquire Monticello. Rest End Extensions.

In the eastern part of the city the Richmond and Henrice Railway Company petitioned for two extensions, the first from Thirty-fifth and Marshall Streets, diverting some of the care from the main line which now operate to Fuiton by construction of a double track line out Thirty-fifth Street six blocks to Dickerson Street, the franchise contemplating the eventual extension of this line along Dickerson Street to Oakwood Cemetery as soon as a ravine shall have been filled and the street opened through. Preperty Owners May Object.

Captain A. B. Guigon, who appeared for the Virginia Railway and Power Company, told of the application of his company two years ago for a line out Hanover or Stuart Avenues from Robinson Street into the new section west of the Boulevard, thus obvisting the necessity of crossing Monument the necessity of crossing Monument Avenue, but the plan was dropped be-cause of the opposition of property owners on Hanover, Stuart and Park

W. Kirk Matthews and General Mana-W. Kirk Matthews and General Manager Sims Bailey appeared for the Richmond and Henrico Company. Mr. Nelson, of the committee, said that the objections met with in the West End from property owners would not be found in Fulton, as the people of Fulton Hill and the National Cemetery section were chamoring for relief.

The committee took no action beyond requesting the engineers for the two requesting the engineers for the two companies to prepare drawings and maps showing exactly what is pro-posed to be constructed, together with the existing lines. These are to be submitted to the City Engineer, who will recommend to the committee any changes in plan or routes he may see fit. Captain Guigon asked that the

The incident of the camceled committee meeting was the origin of Mrs. Littleton's charge that Mrs. Walke opposed her actempt to secure the Daughters' indorsement of plans as to Monticello because she. Mrs. Littleton, would not pay Mrs. Walke's hotel bill.

Mrs. Walke explained to-day that early last year she received illerature from Mrs. Littleton on Federal acquisition of the Jefferson estate. Later there came repeated letters urging her to attend a Senate committee of needing latter of July. She wrote the New York women, after insistent persualton, that she would attend.

On the date set for the meeting Mrs. Walke was in Washington. Efforts to locate Mrs. Littleton were futile. She tried also to find her secretary, and finally Mr. Littleton, which were to the committee from the Washington steamer.
